

MASTER BUILDERS TO MAKE KNOWN THEIR WISHES

Heads of Contracting Firms to Notify Union Men Tonight as to Course They Will Pursue Hereafter.

The various union labor organizations in Albuquerque belonging to the Building Trades council will be notified tonight by the Master Builders' committee whether union men will hereafter be expected to work on the same jobs on which non-union men are employed. It is understood that the union men are anxious to know their position in the matter, the anxiety being brought about as the result of the strike of the plumbers and tinsmiths which has been on for several weeks. It is said that the carpenters yesterday refused to work on the same job as a non-union plumber, with the result that the plumber was taken off the job. What the masters intend to do in the premises will be made known to the union men tonight.

ARCHULETA MAY BE PROSECUTED

Singer Sewing Machine Agent Charged With Embezzlement, Pays Up, But Is Still Legally Involved.

The preliminary hearing of Leandro Archuleta, charged by the Singer Sewing Machine company with the embezzlement of $66, was postponed from 10 o'clock this morning until tomorrow morning at the same hour. Notwithstanding the fact that Archuleta settled his accounts with the Singer company and paid them the money alleged to have been embezzled, the district attorney refused to drop the case, taking the stand that prosecution for felony should not be invoked for the collection of debt. The hearing was postponed to allow Archuleta an opportunity to secure counsel.

"We have never had any trouble with Archuleta before," said Mr. Ackermann, counsel for the Singer company, "in the court this morning. He has always been square about paying his bills, and was a steady worker. He has offered to make good, and I can't see any reason for going after him now."

TAKES SOME TIME TO CATCH BEAUTY

Miss Katherine Dunlap Writes Clever Poem, "Merely An Appreciation of New Mexico," Country of Sunshine.

The following lines are the original contribution of Miss Katherine Dunlap, expressing in something the spirit of Walt Whitman, the impressions of the southwest to a newcomer. The verse, the author writes, was written while living there, and merely as an appreciation:

New Mexico.

At first, I saw a barren land; sometimes it takes to catch the beauty; for the new and strange to eyes more used to verdure. And one needs a sweep of seeing power.

To catch the fullness of the figures, nature works out there.

But when you get it—stretch on stretch.

Of glistening sand—level mesas—

suddenly a canyon, breaking into mountains.

Paths to craters—

Hugged rocks in storm-tossed piles that catch and hold the chilliness—all in sunshiny—dazzling sunshine;

Or, at either end of the day, herald with color tints as clear and fair

As such car air can picture—

You've caught another story,

In the book your country's writing.

And stand prepared to read.

TWO PADILLAS MIX UP IN FIGHT

Santiago Padilla Cuts Up His Name-sake in Free for All Fight in Las Vegas; Difficulty Patched Up However.

Las Vegas, N. M., July 20.—Santiago Padilla mixed things up with a man or precisely the same name here yesterday, and cut a long gash in his opponent's wrist with a pocket knife. The two appeared before Justice Murray yesterday.

Santiago Padilla No. 1, who also professes the name of James, charged Santiago Padilla No 2 with assault with a deadly weapon. Justice Murray advised them to patch up their difficulties without aid from the court. They finally agreed to this, Santiago No. 2 agreeing to pay the costs in the case and Santiago No. 1's doctor bill.

FIFTY SEVEN POUNDS ARTESIAMELONSARE EQUIPMENT FOR GUARDSMEN DOING WELL

Rather Cumbersome and Diversified Articles Distributed on Person of Soldier So They Are Easily Carried.

It would hardly have been imagined that the Albuquerque ardentmen will be notified tonight by the Master Builders' committee whether union men will hereafter be expected to work on the same jobs on which non-union men are employed. It is understood that the union men are anxious to know their position in the matter, the anxiety being brought about as the result of the strike of the plumbers and tinsmiths which has been on for several weeks. It is said that the carpenters yesterday refused to work on the same job as a non-union plumber, with the result that the plumber was taken off the job. What the masters intend to do in the premises will be made known to the union men tonight.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

REMARKABLE SALE OF HATS AT THE GOLDEN RULE

Here's an Opportunity for Every Man and Boy in Town to Obtain a New Sky Piece at Very Low Figure.

Is that straw hat that you are wearing slightly out of gear as the result of a rough season? Or if you did not spread yourself for a new bonnet this year isn't it about time you were thinking of doing that very thing?

The Golden Rule Dry Goods company is out with announcement of a remarkable, record-breaking, sensational hat sale. It is a hat sale that you will think about for many a day. Never again will you have the opportunity to buy a new bonnet for the price that the Golden Rule will sell you one Saturday afternoon and Saturday night. Mind you, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night. This sale doesn't begin until Saturday after 12 o'clock noon, but after that day and hour it is going to be some sale. Everybody knows the class and quality of the hats the Golden Rule people sell. They are made by the foremost manufacturers, every one guaranteed as represented or your coin back forthcoming. These lids that the Golden Rule offer on special sale are the real article in the hat line.

Now, pay close attention. These hats are always sold for $3 and $3.50 all over the country. You can't buy them for less. But the Golden Rule, by special sale, will sell them Saturday afternoon and Saturday night for $1.49, any hat in the bunch, and there are all sizes, all shapes and all colors. If you can't get a hat in the bunch that will suit you, you had better start wearing a cap.

Remember—Saturday afternoon and Saturday night—say $3 and $3.50 hats, only $1.49. Can you beat it?

WILKERSON BRIGHT AND CHEERFUL

Santa Fe Brakeman Who Lost Leg at Mountainair Yesterday Shows Remarkable Nerve Throughout Ordeal.

Hoyle Wilkerson, the Santa Fe brakeman, who had his left leg crushed so badly at Mountainair yesterday afternoon that amputation was necessary upon his arrival here, was reported as resting splendidly at the hospital today. The nurses said that Wilkerson was bright and cheerful and seemed to be bearing up finely beneath his misfortune. The brakeman lost a great quantity of blood as the result of the accident, but showed that he was a game soul all the way through, after the mishap, while being brought to Albuquerque and after the amputation. Wilkerson slipped from the pilot of an engine at Mountainair, his leg being crushed when he rolled in under the wheels.

Expected That Considerable Shipments Will Start July 25 and Continue Three Weeks; 225 Acres Planted.

Artista, N. M., July 20.—A. M. Thomas, who has charge of the Cattlemen's association, says the crop is doing fine and has not been materially damaged by the recent rains.

It is expected to commence shipping by July 25 and at the beginning a car a day will be sent out, and from that two and then three, which will make the crop average about one car per day during the three weeks the shipments will be made.

There are about 225 acres in the Artista district put in cantaloupes and the yield will total about 1,000 crates or more, which ought to net the growers over $1,000 after all expenses are paid. Neither the yield of cantaloupes nor the net profit is hardly expected to be as great the first year as it will be after the people become accustomed to raising and shipping them. However, the crop this year will pay good returns on the cost and work. It also gives to Pecos Valley another good money crop, which comes in at a time when most needed.

Five tent pins.

One tent pole.

One poncho.

One blanket.

One bed ticking.

One comb.

One piece of soap.

One suit of underwear.

One housewife, with pins, thread, needle, etc.

All these things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts, socks and handkerchiefs.

All those things are carried in the blanket roll.

Besides, each private carries:

One Springfield, 1903 model, rifle.

Cartridge belt.

One bayonet and scabbard.

One canteen holding a quart of water.

One knapsack, containing 1 meat pan, 1 tin cup, knife, fork and spoon, and three ration sacks.

One first aid packet containing medicated cotton, and bandages ready to put on a wound.

In suit cases which are shipped as baggage are two extra uniforms, shirts,